HISTORIC HMONG REFUGEE EXHIBIT TO BE OPENED IN SACRAMENTO

Hmongstory 40 and the Sacramento City Unified School District (SCUSD) brings the Hmongstory 40 Exhibit's final show to Sacramento, CA

What: The Hmongstory 40 (HS40) Exhibit is a collaboration between three cities: Fresno, Merced and Sacramento and is managed by volunteers. The year 2015 marked 40 years of the Hmong migration from Laos and Thailand to the United States of America. To commemorate this special anniversary, an exhibition comprised of photographs, stories, fine art, and artifacts was create to showcase the Hmong experience. The exhibit's first showing was in December of 2015 in Fresno, California. The exhibit then traveled to Merced in May of 2016, and will complete its last exhibition show here in Sacramento.

Please join us for our Grand Opening Event.

When: Saturday, February 11, 2017

11AM – 12PM Grand Opening Program
12Noon - Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at the Enrollment Center
12PM – 6PM Exhibit Hours

Exhibit will be on display between February 11th thru 25th, 2017. Visit www.hmongstory40.org/event for hours of operations, special weekend programs, and forums.

Where: SCUSD Serna Center
5735 47th Ave Sacramento, CA 95824

Why: The exhibit tells the unique and yet familiar American story of the immigrant and refugee experience of tragedy, displacement, overcoming hardship and adversity to find a new beginning to thrive.

HS40 is a charitable project under Gifts to Share, Inc. and the Parent Teacher Home Visit Project and was made possible by the generous support from our local community donors and sponsors. For more information about the Hmongstory40 project, visit: www.hmongstory40.org
